The Statutory Basis for the School Admissions Code

1. The School Admissions Code (‘the Code’) has been issued under section 84 of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 (‘SSFA 1998’). The Code has been made following a consultation under section 85(2) of the SSFA 1998 and after being laid before Parliament for forty days.

2. This Code comes into force on [date] and unless otherwise stated, applies with immediate effect. The Code applies to admissions to all maintained schools in England. It should be read alongside the School Admission Appeals Code and other guidance and law that affect admissions and admission appeals in England.

3. This Code imposes mandatory requirements and includes guidelines setting out aims, objectives and other matters in relation to the discharge of functions relating to admissions by the bodies listed below:
   a) Admission authorities of maintained schools as defined in section 88(1) (a) and (b) of the SSFA 1998
   b) Governing bodies and local authorities (when not admission authorities)
   c) Schools Adjudicators
   d) Admission Appeal Panels.

These bodies have a statutory duty to act in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Code.

Application of the Code to Academies

4. Academies, by which we mean Academy Schools, Free Schools, University Technical Colleges and Studio Schools, are state-funded, non fee-paying independent schools set up under a Funding Agreement between the Secretary of State and the proprietor of an Academy (most commonly, and hereafter, referred to as an Academy Trust). Academy Funding Agreements require them to comply with the Code and the law relating to admissions, though the Secretary of State has the power to vary this requirement where there is demonstrable need.

1 Where statutory provisions have been amended, any references to them are references to them as amended.
2 Throughout this draft consultation version of the Code, references to regulations are to the current admissions regulations. These will be consolidated and streamlined to bring them into line with the new Code and so these references will be updated in the final version of the Code.
3 For community and voluntary controlled schools the admission authority is usually the local authority, but it may be the governing body if the local authority with the governing body’s agreement has delegated responsibility to it for determining admission arrangements. Governing bodies are the admission authorities for foundation schools (including Trust schools) and voluntary aided schools.
4 Subject to the Education Bill receiving Royal Assent, Clause 52 introduces three types of Academies: Academy Schools, 16-19 Academies, and Alternative Provision Academies.
Compliance with the Code

5. It is the responsibility of admission authorities to ensure that admission arrangements\(^5\) are compliant with this Code. Where a school is the admission authority, this responsibility falls to the governing body or Academy Trust.

6. The Code requires local authorities to produce and publish an annual report on School Admissions in their area. Minimum requirements for that report are set out at paragraph 3.20 of this Code and include an assessment of the effectiveness of Fair Access Protocols and co-ordination in their area, how admission arrangements affect the interests of looked after children and the number and percentage of lodged and upheld parental appeals.\(^6\) The Schools Adjudicator will report annually to the Secretary of State on Fair Access, based on the issues referred throughout the year.

7. Objections to the admission arrangements of both maintained schools and Academies\(^7\) can be made to the Schools Adjudicator whose decisions are binding and enforceable.

8. The Secretary of State may refer the admission arrangements of any school to the Schools Adjudicator at any time if he considers that they may not comply with the requirements of this Code.

9. The Schools Adjudicator may investigate the admission arrangements of any school that he considers does not or may not comply with the mandatory requirements of this Code or the law.

10. Any decision of the Adjudicator will be binding on the admission authority. It will be for the admission authority to implement those decisions without delay.\(^8\) Where maintained schools fail to implement decisions of the Adjudicator the Secretary of State may direct them to do so under section 496 or 497 of the Education Act 1996. In the case of Academies, the Secretary of State has powers under the funding agreement to direct the Academy to comply with decisions of the Adjudicator.

The table on page 5 sets out the appropriate admission authority for each type of school in England.

\(^5\) Admission arrangements means the overall procedure, practices, criteria and supplementary information to be used in deciding on the allocation of school places and refers to any device or means used to determine whether a school place is to be offered.

\(^6\) Subject to the Education Bill receiving Royal Assent: clause 34 provides that local authorities no longer have to report to the Schools Adjudicator and the requirements for the report will be set out in the Code.

\(^7\) Subject to the Education Bill receiving Royal Assent: clause 62. Currently objections in relation to Academies are dealt with by the Young People’s Learning Agency on behalf of the Secretary of State.

\(^8\) Subject to the Education Bill receiving Royal Assent: clause 34 removes the power of the Adjudicator to modify admission arrangements of a school.

Introduction

Purpose of this Code
The purpose of the Code is to ensure that all school places for maintained schools (excluding maintained special schools\(^9\)) and Academies are allocated and offered in an open and fair way. The Code has the force of law, and where the words ‘must’ or ‘must not’ are used, these represent a mandatory requirement.

Admission authorities and local authorities must also comply with the regulations and legislation set out in the Appendix.

Overall principles behind setting arrangements
In drawing up their admission arrangements, admission authorities must ensure that the practices and the criteria used to decide the allocation of school places are fair, clear and objective. Parents should be able to look at a set of arrangements and understand easily how places for that school will be allocated.

How admissions work

In summary, the process operates as follows:

- All schools must have admission arrangements that clearly set out how children will be admitted, including what criteria will be applied if there are more applications than places at the school. Admission arrangements are determined by admission authorities.

- Admission authorities must set (‘determine’) admission arrangements annually. Where changes are proposed to admission arrangements, the admission authority must first publicly consult on those arrangements. If no changes are made to admission arrangements, they must be consulted on at least every 7 years. Consultation must be for 8 weeks between 1 November and 1 March of the year before those arrangements are to apply. For example: for arrangements which are to apply for applications in 2012 (entry in September 2013), consultation must be completed by 1 March 2012. This consultation period allows parents, other schools, religious authorities and the local community to raise any concerns about proposed admission arrangements.

- Once all arrangements have been determined, arrangements can be objected to and referred to the Schools Adjudicator by 30 June. Any decision of the Adjudicator must be acted on by the admission authority and their admission arrangements amended accordingly. The local authority will collate and publish all the admission arrangements in the area in a single composite prospectus.

\(^9\) A maintained special school is a school maintained by the local authority, specially designed to make special educational provision for pupils with special educational needs.
• In the normal admissions round,\textsuperscript{10} parents apply to the local authority in which they live for places at their preferred schools. Parents are able to express a preference for at least three schools. The application can include schools outside the local authority where the child lives: a parent can apply for a place for their child at any state-funded school in any area. If a school is undersubscribed, any parent that applies must be offered a place. When oversubscribed, a school’s admission authority must rank applications in order against its published oversubscription criteria and send that list back to the local authority.

• All preferences are collated and parents then receive an offer from the local authority at the highest preference school at which a place is available. For secondary schools, the offer is made on or about 1 March (known as National Offer Day) in the year in which the child will be admitted. For primary schools, offers are sent out on a single day in each local authority area but usually a little after the National Offer Day for secondary schools.

• Parents have the right to appeal against a decision to refuse admission of their child to a school. The admission authority must set out the reasons for the decision, that there is a right of appeal and the process for hearing such appeals. The admission authority must establish an independent appeals panel to hear the appeal. The panel will decide whether the appeal of the decision should be upheld or a new decision made (the School Admission Appeals Code sets out the requirements relating to appeals).

DRAFT DOCUMENT: FOR CONSULTATION PURPOSES ONLY

Section 1: Determining Admission Arrangements:

1.1 Admission authorities are responsible for admissions and must act in accordance with this Code, the School Admission Appeals Code, other laws relating to admissions, and relevant human rights and equalities legislation.

1.2 Published Admission Number (PAN). As part of their admission arrangements, all admission authorities must set an admission number for each ‘relevant age group’ (year group) in which children normally enter the school, set with regard to the net capacity assessment of the school. Admission authorities must notify the local authority, local schools and such other persons in the relevant area who appear to the admission authority to have an interest in the admission arrangements of their intention to increase their PAN.

1.3 Anyone who considers that any maintained school or Academy’s admission arrangements are unfair or unlawful or not in compliance with the Code or relevant law relating to admissions can make an objection to the Schools Adjudicator. In respect of an objection in relation to an increase in PAN, there will be a strong presumption in favour of increase unless the increase would lead to a clear threat to pupil safety.

1.4 Oversubscription criteria – The admission authority for the school must set out in their arrangements the criteria against which places will be allocated at the school when there are more applications than places and the order in which the criteria will be applied. All children whose statement of special education needs (SEN) names the school must be admitted. If the school is not oversubscribed, all applicants must be offered a place.

1.5 All schools must have oversubscription criteria for each ‘relevant age group’, and the highest priority must be given to looked after children. Oversubscription criteria must then be applied to all other applicants in the order set out in the arrangements.

1.6 Oversubscription criteria must be reasonable, clear, objective, procedurally fair, and comply with all relevant legislation, including equalities legislation. Admission authorities must ensure that their arrangements will not disadvantage unfairly, either directly or indirectly, a child from a particular social or racial group, or a child with a disability or special educational needs, and that other policies around school uniform or school trips do not

11 The main provisions relating to admissions are in Chapter 1 of Part 3 of the SSFA 1998.
12 See sections 88C and 88D of the SSFA 1998.
13 See footnote 7: subject to Royal Assent of Education Bill.
14 A Statement of Special Educational Need is a legal document issued by the local authority specifying the particular needs and resources for providing education for that child.
15 This is the age group at which pupils are or will normally be admitted to the school (section 142 SSFA 1998).
16 ‘Looked after children’ are children who are in the care of the local authority as defined by section 22 of the Children Act 1989. In relation to school admissions a ‘looked after child’ is only considered as such if the local authority confirms he or she will be in public care when he or she is admitted to school.
discourage parents from applying for a place for their child. Admission arrangements must include an effective, clear and fair tiebreaker to decide between two applications that cannot otherwise be separated.

1.7 It is for admission authorities to formulate their admission arrangements, but they must not:

   a) place any conditions on the consideration of any application other than those in the oversubscription criteria published in their admission arrangements;

   b) take into account any previous schools attended, unless it is a named feeder school;

   c) give extra priority to children whose parents rank preferred schools in a particular order, including 'first preference first' arrangements;

   d) introduce any new selection by ability;¹⁷

   e) give priority to children on the basis of any practical or financial support parents may give to the school or any associated organisation, including any religious authority;

   f) give priority to children according to the occupational, marital, financial or educational status of parents applying (though children of staff at the school may be prioritised in arrangements¹⁸);

   g) take account of reports from previous schools about children’s past behaviour, attendance, attitude or achievement, or that of any other children in the family;

   h) discriminate against or disadvantage disabled children or those with special educational needs;

   i) prioritise children on the basis of their own or parents’ past or current hobbies or activities. (Designated faith schools may take account of religious activities, as laid out by the faith provider body/religious authority);

   j) in designated grammar schools that rank all children according to a pre-determined pass mark and then allocate places to those who score highest, give priority to siblings of current or former pupils;

   k) in the case of schools with boarding places, rank children on the basis of a child’s suitability for boarding – more information on boarding schools is set out at paragraphs 1.34 - 1.35;

   l) name fee-paying independent schools as feeder schools;

¹⁷ There is a general restriction on selection by ability. Only designated grammar schools or schools with partially selective arrangements which already had such arrangements in place during the 1997-98 school year are permitted to continue to use selection by ability. Grammar schools are designated as such by order made by the Secretary of State under section 104 of the SSFA 1998.

¹⁸ Free Schools and Academies may also, where their funding agreements permit, give priority in admission arrangements to children eligible for Free School Meals (in future, the Pupil Premium). [Further guidance will be produced on this policy area following consultation]
m) interview children or parents. In the case of sixth form applications, a meeting may be held to discuss options and academic entry requirements for particular courses, but this meeting cannot form part of the decision making process on whether to offer a place. Boarding schools may interview children to assess their suitability for boarding;

n) request financial contributions (either in the form of voluntary contributions, donations or deposits (even if refundable)) as any part of the admissions process – including for tests;

o) request photographs of a child for any part of the admissions process, other than as proof of identity when sitting a selection test.

1.8 This Code does not give a definitive list of acceptable oversubscription criteria. It is for admission authorities to decide which criteria would be most suitable to the school according to the local circumstances, but the most common include:

Siblings at the school

1.9 Admission authorities must state clearly in their arrangements what they mean by ‘sibling’ (i.e. whether this includes step siblings, foster siblings, adopted siblings and other children living permanently at the same address or siblings who are former pupils of the school).

1.10 Some schools give priority to siblings of pupils attending another state funded school with which they have close links (for example schools on the same site, or close links between two single sex schools). Where this is the case, this priority must be set out clearly in the arrangements.

Distance from the school

1.11 Admission authorities must clearly set out how distance from home to the school will be measured, making clear how the ‘home’ address will be determined and the point in the school from which all distances are measured. This should include provision for cases where parents have shared residence of a child following the breakdown of their relationship and the child lives for part of the week with each parent.

Catchment Areas

1.12 Catchment areas must be designed so that they are reasonable and clearly defined. Catchment areas do not prevent parents who live outside the catchment of a particular school from expressing a preference for the school.

Feeder Schools

1.13 Junior and secondary schools may wish to name a primary or infant

19 R v Greenwich London Borough Council, ex parte John Ball Primary School (1989) 88 LGR 589 [1990] Fam Law 469 held that pupils should not be discriminated against in relation to admission to the school simply because they reside outside the local authority area in which the school is situated. Section 86(8) of the SSFA 1998 places an equal duty on local authorities to comply with parental preference in respect of parents living within and outside their boundary.
school as a feeder school. The selection of a feeder school or schools as part of over subscription criteria must be made on reasonable grounds.

Social and medical need

1.14 If admission authorities decide to use this criterion they must set out in their arrangements how they will define this need and give clear details about what supporting evidence will be required (e.g. a letter from a doctor or social worker) and then make consistent decisions based on the evidence provided.

Selection by ability or aptitude

1.15 Only designated Grammar schools\textsuperscript{20} are permitted to select their entire intake on the basis of high academic ability\textsuperscript{21}. They must publish the entry requirements for a selective place and the process for such selection.

1.16 Partially selective schools select a proportion of their intake by ability. Where schools can partially select, they must publish the entry requirements for a selective place, and the process for such selection. They must offer places to other children if there are insufficient applicants who have satisfied the published entry requirements for a selective place.

1.17 Partially selective schools must not exceed the lowest proportion of selection that has been used since the 1997-98 school year.\textsuperscript{22}

1.18 Schools that have arrangements to select by aptitude must not allow for more than 10% of the total admissions intake to be allocated on the basis of aptitude in any relevant age group (even if the school has more than one specialism). The specialist subjects on which a school may select by aptitude are:

- a) physical education or sport, or one or more sports;
- b) the performing arts, or any one or more of those arts;
- c) the visual arts, or any one or more of those arts;
- d) modern foreign languages, or any such language; and
- e) design and technology, and ICT for schools already selecting in those subjects before the 2008 school year. No other schools may introduce selection in these subjects.

1.19 Where there are insufficient applicants who meet the criteria for the proportion of selective admissions (not including designated grammars) the school must allocate those places to other applicants, applying the school’s remaining oversubscription criteria.

\textsuperscript{20} As designated by the Education (Grammar School Designation) Order 1998 (SI 1998/2219). Academies that were designated as Grammar Schools before conversion are permitted to continue selecting their entire intake: section 6(3) of the Academies Act 2010.

Banding

1.20 Pupil ability banding is a permitted form of selection\(^{23}\) used by some admission authorities to ensure that the intake for a school includes a proportionate spread of children of different abilities. Banding can be used to produce an intake that is representative of:

   a) the full range of ability of applicants for the school(s);
   b) the range of ability of children in the local area; or
   c) the national ability range.

1.21 Admission authorities’ entry requirements for banding must be fair, clear and objective. Banding arrangements which favour high ability children that have been continuously used since the 1997-98 school year may continue, but must not be introduced by any other school.

1.22 The admission authority must publish the admission requirements and the process for such banding and decisions, including details of any tests that will be used to band children according to ability.

1.23 Where the school is oversubscribed, looked after children must be given priority in each band, and then any oversubscription criteria applied within each band. Schools that operate both banding and selection of 10 per cent of pupils with reference to aptitude must band pupils first, and then admit 10 per cent of places available on the basis of the relevant aptitude from within the bands. Priority must not be given within bands according to the applicant’s performance in the test.

1.24 Children with statements of SEN may be included in banding tests and allocated places in the appropriate bands, but, regardless of banding tests, they must be allocated a place if their statement names the school.

1.25 Tests for all forms of selection must be clear, objective, and give an accurate reflection of the child’s ability or aptitude, irrespective of sex, race, or disability. It is for the admission authority as to which test is used, providing that the test is a true test of aptitude or ability.

1.26 Admission authorities must:

   - ensure that tests for aptitude in a particular subject test only for aptitude in the subject concerned;
   - ensure that tests are accessible to children with special educational needs and disabilities, having regard to the reasonable adjustments for disabled pupils required under equalities legislation;
   - inform parents of the outcome of selection tests before parents make applications for other schools – while making clear that this does not equate to a guarantee of a selective place.

\(^{23}\) Section 101 of the SSFA 1998.
1.27 Admission authorities must not adjust the score achieved by any child in a test to take account of oversubscription criteria, such as having a sibling at the school.

Random allocation

1.28 Local authorities must not use random allocation as the principal oversubscription criterion for allocating places at all the schools in their area for which they are the admission authority. Admission authorities that decide to use random allocation when schools are oversubscribed must set out clearly how this will operate, ensuring that arrangements are transparent, and that looked after children are prioritised.

1.29 The random allocation process must be supervised by someone independent of the school, and a fresh round of random allocation must be used each time a child is to be offered a place from a waiting list.

Faith based oversubscription criteria in schools with a religious character

1.30 As with other maintained schools, faith schools are required to offer every child who applies, whether of the faith, another faith or no faith, a place at the school if there are places available. Schools designated by the Secretary of State as having a religious character (commonly known as faith schools) may use faith-based oversubscription criteria and allocate places by reference to faith where the school is oversubscribed.

1.31 Admission authorities must ensure that parents can easily understand how the criteria will be satisfied. While admission authorities for faith schools may give priority to all looked after children whether or not of the faith they must give priority to looked after children of the faith before other children of the faith. Where any element of priority is given in relation to children not of the faith they must give priority to looked after children not of the faith above other children not of the faith.

1.32 Admission authorities for schools designated as having a religious character must have regard to any guidance from the relevant faith provider group or religious authority when constructing faith-based oversubscription criteria, to the extent that the guidance complies with the mandatory provisions and guidelines of this Code. They must also consult with the relevant faith provider group or religious authority when deciding how membership or practice of the faith is to be demonstrated. Church of England schools must, as required by the Diocesan Boards of Education Measure 1991, consult with their diocese about proposed admission arrangements before any public consultation.

24 Funding agreements for entirely new Academies (i.e. not convertors from the maintained or independent sectors, or those sponsored Academies with a predecessor school) and Free Schools with a religious character provide that where the school is oversubscribed at least 50% of places are to be allocated without reference to faith.

Children of staff at the school

1.33 If admission authorities decide to give priority to children of staff, they must set out clearly in their admission arrangements how they will define ‘staff’ and on what basis children of staff will be prioritised.

Maintained boarding schools

1.34 Maintained boarding schools can set separate admission numbers for day places and boarding places. A maintained boarding school can interview applicants to assess suitability for boarding but such interviews must only consider whether a child presents a serious health and safety hazard to other boarders or whether they would be able to cope with and benefit from a boarding environment. To help with this assessment, they may also use a supplementary information form, and information provided by the previous school and by the child’s home local authority (on safeguarding issues). These processes, and the timeline for them, must be clearly set out in the school’s admission arrangements.

1.35 Boarding schools must give priority in their oversubscription criteria in the following order:

- looked after children;
- children of members of the UK Armed Forces who qualify for Ministry of Defence financial assistance with the cost of boarding school fees;
- children with a ‘boarding need’, making it clear what they mean by this.

1.36 Consultation — When changes are proposed to admission arrangements, all admission authorities must consult by 1 March on the full admission arrangements (including any supplementary information form) that will apply for admission applications the following academic year. There is no requirement to consult on any increases in PAN. Where those arrangements have not changed from the previous year there is no requirement to consult, subject to the requirement that admission authorities must consult on their admission arrangements at least once every 7 years, even if there have been no changes during that period.

1.37 Consultation must last for a minimum of 8 weeks between 1 November and 1 March in the determination year.

1.38 Admission authorities must consult with (amongst others):

- relevant parents;
- other groups with an interest in the local area (for example, community

26 Grammar school arrangements which relate to the retention of permitted selection or removal of selection following a ballot or decision by the governing body (s108 and 109 of the SSFA 1998) are exempt from consultation.

groups, or Admission Forums where they exist);
- all other admission authorities within the relevant area;
- their local authority;
- neighbouring local authorities;
- the relevant religious authority (in the case of faith schools\(^28\)).

1.39 For the purposes of consultation the admission authority must publish a copy of their proposed admission arrangements on their website, where they have one, and send a copy by email or letter to all of the groups named above, bearing in mind that failing to consult effectively may be grounds for subsequent complaints and appeals.

Determination

1.40 All admission authorities must determine admission arrangements by 15 April every year – even if they have not changed from previous years and a consultation has not been required.

1.41 Once admission authorities have determined their admission arrangements, they must publish a copy of the determined arrangements on their website, where they have one, displaying them for the whole offer year. They must send a copy of their full, determined arrangements to the local authority as soon as possible before 1 May.

1.42 Where an admission authority has determined a published admission number that is higher than in previous years, they must notify the local authority that they have done so, and make specific reference to the change on their website.

1.43 Local authorities must, by 1 May, publish on their website details of where the determined arrangements for all schools can be viewed, and information on how to refer objections to the Schools Adjudicator.

1.44 Following determination of arrangements, any objections to those arrangements must be made to the Schools Adjudicator by 30 June. Admission authorities that are not the local authority must provide all the information that the local authority needs to compile the composite prospectus no later than 8 August, unless agreed otherwise.

1.45 Composite prospectuses – Local authorities must publish online - with hard copies available for those who do not have access to the internet - a composite prospectus for parents by 12 September in the offer year (the academic year that offers for places are made), which contains the admissions arrangements for each of the state-funded schools in the local authority area to which parents can apply (i.e. all schools including Academies). They must ensure that this information is kept up to date throughout the period in which it is possible for parents to apply for a place for their child, and that it is written in a way that makes it clear and accessible to parents.

Section 2: Applications and Offers

2.1 Applying for places – For applications in the normal admission round, local authorities must provide a common application form (‘CAF’) that enables parents to express their preference for a place at any state funded school, with a minimum of 3 preferences in rank order, allowing them to give reasons for their preferences. While parents may express a preference for any state funded school – regardless of whether it is in the local authority area in which they live, admission authorities must not give any guarantees that a preference will be met.

2.2 The CAF must allow parents to provide their name, their address (including documentary evidence in support), and the name, address and date of birth of the child. The child must not be required to complete any part of the form. Local authorities must provide advice and assistance to parents when they are deciding which schools to apply for.29

2.3 Regardless of which schools they express preferences for, the form is returned to the local authority in the area that they live (the ‘home’ authority). The home authority must then pass information on applications to other local (‘maintaining’) authorities about applications to schools in their area. The maintaining authority must determine the application in the normal way, and inform the home local authority if a place is available. The offer to parents must be made by the home local authority.

2.4 In some cases, admission authorities will need to ask for supplementary information forms in order to process applications. If they do so, they must only use supplementary application/information forms that request additional information when it has a direct bearing on decisions about oversubscription criteria or for the purpose of selection by aptitude or ability. They must not use supplementary application or information forms that ask for any of the information prohibited by paragraph 1.7 or for:

a) any personal details about parents and families, such as maiden names, criminal convictions, marital, or financial status (including marriage certificates);
b) the first language of parents or the child;
c) details about parents’ or children’s disabilities, special educational needs or medical conditions;
d) parents to agree to support the ethos of the school in a practical way;
e) both parents to sign the form, or for the child to complete the form.

2.5 Admission authorities may need to ask for proof of address where it is unclear whether a child meets the published oversubscription criteria. In these cases they must not ask for any evidence that would include any of the information detailed above. Once a place has been offered, admission authorities may ask for proof of birth date, but must not ask for a ‘long’ birth certificate or other documents which would include information about the child’s parents.

2.6 Applying for places at Sixth Form - Children and their parents applying for sixth form places may use the CAF although if they are already on roll they are not required to do so in order to transfer into year 12. Admission authorities can, however, set academic entry criteria for their sixth forms, which must be the same for both external and internal places. As with other points of entry to schools, highest priority in oversubscription criteria for sixth form places must be given to looked after children. As stated in paragraph 1.7(m), any meetings held to discuss options and courses must not form part of the decision process on whether to offer a place.

Offering places

2.7 Admission authorities must allocate places on the basis of their published admission arrangements only, and a decision to offer or refuse admission must not be made by one individual in an admission authority. Where the school is its own admission authority the whole governing body, or an admissions committee established by the governing body, must make such decisions.

2.8 With the exception of designated grammar schools, all maintained schools, including faith schools, that have enough places available must offer a place to every child who has applied for one, without condition or the use of any over-subscription criteria.

2.9 Admission authorities must not refuse to admit a child solely because:

a) they have applied later than other applicants;

b) they are not of the faith of the school in the case of a faith school;

c) they followed a different curriculum at their previous school;

d) information has not been received from their previous school; or

e) they have missed entrance tests for selective places.

2.10 In the normal admissions round, offers of primary and secondary places must be sent by the home local authority and schools must not contact parents about the outcome of their applications until after these offers have been received (although they can notify parents of the result of selection tests or boarding suitability tests in advance of offers being made or even formal applications being submitted). Admission authorities must not provide any guarantees to applicants of the outcome of their application prior to the formal notification of any offers of a place in a suitable school.

2.11 Where a place is available for a child at more than one school, the home local authority must ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, that the child is offered a place at whichever of these schools is their highest preference. If the local authority is unable to offer a place at one of the parents’ preferred schools it must, if there are places available, offer a place at another school.

2.12 Withdrawing a place – An admission authority must not withdraw an offer unless it has been offered in error, a parent has not responded within a reasonable period of time, or it is found out that the place was obtained through a fraudulent or intentionally misleading application. Where the parent has not responded to the offer, the admission authority must give the parent a further opportunity to respond and explain that the place may be withdrawn if they do not. Where a place is withdrawn on the basis of misleading information, the application must be considered afresh, and a right of appeal offered if a place is refused.

2.13 A school must not withdraw a place once a child has started at the school, except where that place was fraudulently obtained. In deciding whether to withdraw the place, the length of time that the child had been at the school must be taken into account, for example, it might be considered appropriate to withdraw the place if the child has been at the school for less than one term.

2.14 Waiting lists – Each admission authority must maintain a clear, fair and objective waiting list for at least the first term of the academic year of admission, stating in their arrangements that each added child will require the list to be ranked again in line with the published oversubscription criteria. Priority must not be given to children based on the date either their application was received or their name was added to the list. Looked after children, and those allocated a place at the school in accordance with a Fair Access Protocol, must take precedence over those on a waiting list.

2.15 Infant class size – Infant classes (those where the majority of children will reach the age of 5, 6 or 7 during the school year) must not contain more than 30 pupils with a single school teacher. Additional children may be admitted under very limited exceptional circumstances. These children will remain an ‘excepted pupil’ for the time they are in an infant class or until the class numbers fall back to the current infant class size limit. The excepted children are:

- children with statements of special educational needs outside the normal admissions round;
- children who move into the area outside the normal admissions round for whom there is no other available school within reasonable distance;
- children admitted, after initial allocation of places on the local offer date, because of a procedural error made by the admission authority or local authority in the original application process;
- looked after children admitted outside the normal admissions round;
• children admitted after an independent appeal panel upholds an appeal;
• children with SEN who are normally taught in an SEN unit attached to the school, who attend some infant classes within the mainstream school;
• children of UK service personnel admitted outside the normal admissions round;
• twins and children from multiple births.

2.16 Admission of children below compulsory school age and deferred entry to school — Admission authorities must provide for the admission of all children in the September following their fourth birthday. The authority must make it clear in their arrangements that: (a) parents can request that the date their child is admitted to school is deferred until later in the year or until the child reaches compulsory school age and (b) parents can request that their child takes up the place part-time until the child reaches compulsory school age.

2.17 Admission of children outside their normal age group – Parents of gifted and talented children, or those who have experienced problems or missed part of a year, for example due to ill health, can seek places outside their normal age group. Admission authorities must make decisions on the basis of the circumstances of each case, informing parents of their statutory right to appeal. This right does not apply if they are offered a place in another year group at the school.

2.18 Children of UK service personnel and Crown Servants — For families of service personnel (armed forces), Crown Servants and British Council employees with a confirmed posting to their area, admission authorities must:

- allocate a place in advance, if accompanied by an official government letter which declares a relocation date and a Unit postal address or quartering area address for considering the application against their oversubscription criteria. This must include accepting a Unit postal address or quartering area address for a service child. Admission authorities must not refuse a service child a place because the family does not currently live in the area, or reserve blocks of places for these children;

- ensure that arrangements in their area support the Government’s commitment to removing disadvantage for service children. Arrangements must be appropriate for the area and be described in the local authority’s composite prospectus.

30 An SEN unit forms part of a maintained school and is specially organised to provide education for pupils with SEN.
2.19 Children from overseas - admission authorities must treat applications for children coming from overseas in accordance with European Union law or Home Office rules for non-European Economic Area nationals. Non–statutory guidance on this is available on the website of the Department for Education.

2.20 Co-ordination – Each year all local authorities must formulate a scheme by 1 January\(^{31}\) to co-ordinate admission arrangements for state funded schools within their area. All admission authorities\(^{32}\) must participate in co-ordination and provide the local authority with the information it needs to co-ordinate admissions by the dates agreed within the scheme. Local authorities must make applications forms available to parents who wish to apply to a school in a neighbouring area which operates a different age of transfer (e.g. middle schools), and process these as it would in its normal admissions round.

2.21 There is no requirement for local authorities to co-ordinate ‘in year’ applications but they must, on request, provide information to a parent about the places still available within its area, and a suitable form for them to use in applying to a school for a place for their child. Any parent can apply for a place for their child at any time to any school.

2.22 Admission authorities must, on receipt of an in year application, notify the local authority of both the application, and its outcome, to allow the local authority to keep up to date figures on the availability of places in the area. The admission authority must also inform parents of their right to appeal against the refusal of a place.

2.23 Offering a place – Where schools are oversubscribed, admission authorities must rank applications in accordance with their published arrangements. The co-ordinated scheme must ensure that:

- only one offer is made per child by the local authority;
- for secondary school applications, all offers must be made on the same National Offer Day – 1 March or the next working day. There is no national offer day for primary schools; each authority must set its own offer date.

2.24 Right to appeal – Parents and children over compulsory school age may appeal against decisions to refuse admission to preferred schools. When a child is refused admission to a school, the admission authority must ensure the person who applied for the school place (whether the parent or the child) receives the reasons for that decision and the information about their right to appeal and the requirements for making an appeal.

\(^{32}\) Academies are required under their funding agreements to participate in and comply with requirements in relation to local authority co-ordination of admission arrangements. For the first year of opening only, funding agreements for Free Schools will provide that they may choose whether they wish to participate in the local co-ordination scheme.
2.25 School closure - Where a maintained school or Academy is to be closed, the local authority must collaborate with other schools in their area to consider the best way to ensure provision for children in other local schools.
Section 3: Ensuring Fairness and Resolving Issues

3.1 The Schools Adjudicator – The Schools Adjudicator must consider whether admission arrangements referred to him comply with the Code and the law relating to admissions. The admission authority must revise their admission arrangements immediately to give effect to the Adjudicator’s decision. An Adjudicator’s determination is binding and enforceable.

3.2 Local authorities must use their power to refer an objection to the Schools Adjudicator if they are of the view or suspect that the admission arrangements at schools in their area (for which they are not the admission authority) contravene admissions law and/or the Code.

3.3 Anyone who considers that any maintained school or Academy’s arrangements are unfair or unlawful, or not in compliance with the Code or relevant law relating to admissions, can make an objection to the Schools Adjudicator. Further information on how to make an objection can be obtained from the Office of the Schools Adjudicator: http://www.schoolsadjudicator.gov.uk

3.4 Where the Schools Adjudicator is considering an objection that an increase in PAN is unreasonable, he must have regard to the presumption in favour of increase unless he is of the view that the increase would lead to a clear threat to pupil safety.

3.5 Variations – once admission arrangements have been determined for a particular academic year, they cannot be revised by the admission authority – unless a misprint needs correcting, or they need to be brought in line with an Adjudicator’s determination or a mandatory requirement of this Code and Part 3 of the SSFA 1998. The only other variations permitted to determined admission arrangements are those proposed by the admission authority following a major change of circumstances. These must be referred to, and approved by, the Schools Adjudicator.

3.6 Schools that wish to vary their PAN during the admissions year must refer their proposal to the Schools Adjudicator for approval. In making decisions on a proposal to decrease PAN, the presumption is against decreases in PAN unless the admission authority provides sufficient evidence of a sustained decrease in parental demand.

3.7 Children with challenging behaviour and those who have been excluded twice – Admission authorities must not refuse to admit children in the normal admission round on the basis of their poor behaviour elsewhere. Where a child has been permanently excluded from two or more schools

33 Section 88K(4)(d) of the SSFA 1998 and the School Admissions (Admission Arrangements) (England) Regulations 2008 (SI 2008/3089) allow for changes to be made in neighbouring schools so that arrangements can be brought in line with a determination in another school.

34 Variations to an Academy’s arrangements must be referred to the Secretary of State for agreement.
there is no need for an admission authority to comply with parental preference for a period of two years from the last exclusion\(^{35}\). The twice excluded rule does not apply to children who were below compulsory school age at the time of the exclusion, children who have been re-instated following a permanent exclusion and children with SEN statements.

3.8 Fair Access Protocols – Each local authority must have a Fair Access Protocol, agreed with the majority of schools in its area, which sets out how, outside the normal admissions round, schools in the area will admit their fair share of children with challenging behaviour, children excluded from other schools and children who arrive outside the admissions round who may have difficulty securing a school place. In these circumstances, admission authorities may, if necessary, admit above their PAN. This must include how the local authority will use alternative provision to meet the needs of pupils who are not ready for mainstream schooling.

3.9 The operation of Fair Access Protocols is outside the arrangements of co-ordination and is triggered when a parent of an eligible child has not secured a school place under in-year admission procedures, even following the outcome of an appeal.

3.10 All admission authorities must participate in the Fair Access Protocol in order to ensure that unplaced children are allocated a school place quickly and that no school takes more than its share of children with challenging behaviour. There is no duty for local authorities or admission authorities to comply with parental preference when allocating places through the Fair Access Protocol.

3.11 Where a governing body does not wish to admit a child with challenging behaviour outside the normal admissions round, even though places are available, it must refer the case to the local authority for action under the Fair Access Protocol. This will normally only be appropriate where a school has a particularly high proportion of children with challenging behaviour or previously excluded children. The use of this provision will depend on local circumstances and must be described in the local authority’s Fair Access Protocol. It will not apply to a looked after child or one with a statement of special needs naming the school in question, as these children must be admitted.

3.12 Admission authorities must not refuse to admit a child thought to be potentially disruptive, or to exhibit challenging behaviour, on the grounds that the child is first to be assessed for special educational needs.

3.13 A Fair Access Protocol must not require a school automatically to take another child with challenging behaviour in the place of a child excluded from the school.

3.14 The list of children to be included in a Fair Access Protocol is to be agreed with the majority of schools in the area, but must, as a minimum,

include the following children of compulsory school age who have difficulty securing a school place:

- Children from the criminal justice system or Pupil Referral Units who need to be reintegrated into mainstream education;
- Children who have been out of education for two months or more;
- Children of Gypsies, Roma, Travellers, refugees and asylum seekers;
- Children who are homeless;
- Children with unsupportive family backgrounds for whom a place has not been sought;
- Children who are carers; and
- Children with special educational needs, disabilities or medical conditions (but without a statement).

3.15 Powers of direction — Local authorities have the power through primary legislation to direct other admission authorities for any maintained school to admit a child, with special provision for a looked after child, to the school best suited to his or her needs\(^\text{36}\), even when the school is full. Such action must be taken in the best interests of the child.

3.16 Before giving a direction, the local authority must consult the admission authority for the school they propose to direct, giving reasons for the direction. The admission authority then has seven days to inform the local authority if it is willing to admit the child. If it is not, and the local authority decides to issue the direction, it must first inform the admission authority, the governing body (if the governing body is not the admission authority), the head teacher and, if the school is in another local authority area, the maintaining local authority.

3.17 The admission authority, or governing body if the local authority is the admission authority, has a further seven days to refer the case to the Schools Adjudicator, if the child concerned has previously been excluded from two schools and it considers that admission of the child would prejudice the provision of efficient education or efficient use of resources at the school.

3.18 The Schools Adjudicator may either uphold the direction or, if the local authority that looks after the child agrees, determine that another suitable maintained school in England must admit the child. The Schools Adjudicator’s decision is binding. The Schools Adjudicator may not direct an alternative school to admit a child when the child has already been excluded from that school or when admission would prejudice the provision of efficient education or efficient use of resources.

3.19 Where a local authority considers that a particular Academy will best meet the needs of the child, they can ask them to admit that child even when the Academy is full. A consensus will be reached locally in the large majority of cases, but if the Academy disagrees with the local authority’s reasoning and refuses to admit the child, the case can be referred to the Secretary of State. In such cases, the Secretary of State may direct an Academy to admit a looked after child, and can seek advice from the Schools Adjudicator in reaching his decision\(^\text{37}\). In providing such advice, the Schools Adjudicator will consider the case in the same way as for maintained schools.

3.20 Local authority reports – Local authorities must produce an annual report on admissions for all the schools in their area for which they co-ordinate admissions, to be published locally by 30 June following the admissions round. The report must cover as a minimum:

(a) information about how admission arrangements in the area of the local authority serve the interests of looked after children, children with disabilities and children with special educational needs and details of where problems have arisen;

(b) an assessment of the effectiveness of Fair Access Protocols and co-ordination in their area, including how many children were admitted to each school under them;

(c) the number and percentage of lodged and upheld parental appeals; and

(d) any arising issues – such as objections to the Schools Adjudicator - affecting admissions for the newly-determined year.

Appendix – Relevant Legislation

This section will describe the main requirements of relevant legislation for school admissions at the time the Code will come into force. This will include reference to amended or new regulations that will accompany the changes to the School Admissions Code and School Admission Appeals Code.

1. This appendix sets out the primary legislation and Regulations most relevant to admissions decisions. Admission authorities, Schools Adjudicators, appeal panels, local authorities, maintained schools must comply with the relevant law as well as acting in accordance with the provisions of this Code. This Code and the School Admission Appeals Code (the Codes) are applied to Academies through their Funding Agreements. The information here aims to signpost the relevant law; it does not aim to provide definitive guidance on interpreting the law: that is for the courts.

Equality Act 2010

2. This Act consolidates the law prohibiting discrimination, harassment and victimisation and expands the list of protected characteristics. All schools need to be aware of their obligations and to review their policies and practices to make sure these meet the requirements of the Act, even if they believe that they are already operating in a non-discriminatory way.

3. An admission authority must not discriminate on the grounds of disability; gender reassignment; pregnancy and maternity; race; religion or belief; sex; or sexual orientation, against a person in the arrangements and decisions it makes as to who is offered admission as a pupil.

4. An admission authority must not harass a person who has applied for admission as a pupil, in relation to their disability; race; or sex.

5. An admission authority must not victimise a person in relation to a protected act either done, or believed to have been done by that person (e.g. bringing proceedings under the Equality Act 2010) in the arrangements and decisions it makes as to who is offered admission as a pupil.

6. The Act contains limited exceptions to the prohibition of discrimination on grounds of religion or belief and sex. Schools designated by the Secretary of State as having a religious character (faith schools) are exempt from some aspects of the prohibition of discrimination on the grounds of religion or belief and this means they can make a decision about whether or not to admit a child as a pupil on the basis of religion or belief. Single-sex schools are lawfully permitted to discriminate on the grounds of sex in their admission arrangements.

38 ‘Academies’ means Academy Schools for the purposes of s1 Academies Act 2010 and includes free schools.
7. Admission authorities are also subject to the Public Sector Equality Duty and therefore must consider how they can eliminate discrimination, harassment and victimisation, advance equality of opportunity, and foster good relations in relation to persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it.

8. The protected characteristics for these purposes are: disability; gender reassignment; pregnancy and maternity; race; religion or belief; sex; and sexual orientation.

Human Rights Act 1998

9. The Human Rights Act 1998 confers a right of access to education. This right does not extend to securing a place at a particular school. Admission authorities, however, do need to consider parents’ reasons for expressing a preference when they make admission decisions, though this may not necessarily result in the allocation of a place. These might include, for example, the parents’ rights to ensure that their child’s education conforms to their own religious or philosophical convictions (as far as is compatible with the provision of efficient instruction and the avoidance of unreasonable public expenditure).

School Standards and Framework Act 1998

10. Chapter 1 of Part 3 of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 contains the key provisions regarding schools admissions, including the statutory basis for this Code.

11. Section 86 of the SSFA 1998 provides that the admission authority for a maintained school (with the exceptions of those that select wholly by ability) must comply with any preference expressed by a parent except where to do so would prejudice the provision of efficient education or the efficient use of resources.

12. Section 94 of the SSFA 1998 provides that parents (and in some circumstances children) may appeal against admissions decisions. Admission authorities are required to inform parents, through the local authority, of their right of appeal, and also to establish panels to which parents can appeal against decisions to refuse admission to preferred schools. Admission authorities must admit a child whose parents have won an appeal.

14. The Codes largely include the provisions relating to schools admissions made in regulations. The key regulations to be aware of are39:

39 Following consultation on the Code, we will be reviewing the admissions regulations to bring them into line with the new provisions and with a view to seeking to streamline and consolidate them. The final list of regulations will be added to the final Code.
Sample admission arrangements - These example arrangements are provided for illustrative purposes only – they are not “suggested” arrangements and should not be seen as such. Arrangements for individual schools must be set in the context of local circumstances.

The school has an agreed admission number of 240 pupils for entry in year 7. The school will accordingly admit at least 240 pupils in the relevant age group each year if sufficient applications are received. All applicants will be admitted if 240 or fewer apply.

When the school is oversubscribed, after the admission of pupils with Statements of Special Educational Needs where the school is named in the Statement, priority for admission will be given to those children who meet the criteria set out below, in order:

1. Looked after children (“Looked after children” are children who are in the care of the local authority as defined by section 22 of the Children Act 1989. In relation to school admissions a “looked after child” is only considered as such if the local authority confirms he or she will be in public care when he or she is admitted to school.)

2. Children with a sibling attending the school at the time of application. Sibling is defined in these arrangements as children who live as brother or sister in the same house, including natural brothers or sisters, adopted siblings, stepbrothers or sisters and foster brothers and sisters.

3. Other children by distance from the school, with priority for admission given to children who live nearest to the school as the crow flies. Distances are measured from the main entrance of the child’s home to the main entrance of the school.

Random allocation will be used as a tie-break in category ‘3’ above to decide who has highest priority for admission if the distance between two children’s homes and the school is the same.
